The King George Wine Society has tried to keep members involved through Zoom and in-person tastings over the course of the past year. A newsletter was not written for several months. Sorry to miss capturing the events. However, we did grab some notes from our June and July events.

June: Terri Hyde presented Lauren Zimmerman (winemaker for Port of Leonardtown winery), who presented her tasting of seven wines via Zoom to 29 attendees at the American Legion Bldg.

Ratings resulted in the 2020 Sauvignon Blanc being the favorite white wine. Additionally, the 2019 Chambourcin Reserve was the favorite red with the 10th Anniversary Red being the favorite overall.

Kerry Adkins provided brie, goat cheese, hard salami, pepperoni, almonds, dark chocolate, chicken pasta salad, and oyster crackers.

July: We celebrated together at the Stricklands using a "taste at your own pace" style presentation. We welcomed our newest member, Ryan Spence, two guests, Stephanie Such and Kellen Dunn and 20 other members. This summer wine party introduced us to easy wines to have when poolside. Several pot luck foods were also available. This was one of the first times the tasting lasted over two days; some people just wouldn't depart. Attendees enjoyed the relief of getting together in a light hearted fashion while tasting some pleasant wines. No ratings were conducted, but none were considered unpalatable.
