

*American Wine Society
King George Chapter
CROATIAN WINE TASTING
9 November 2007 @ 7:30 PM
Oak Crest Winery
8250 Oak Crest Drive,
King George, VA 22485*

*Special Guests: DCMO Marijan Gubic,
Croatian Embassy, Washington D.C.; Frank
Mustac, Croatian Chronicle and Damir
Hainski, Croatian News Service*

Presented by Kathleen and Tom Kuker

Croatian Reds and a California Zinfandel

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Grape variety	Wine Maker	Region	Alc %
1. 100% Plavac Mali Dingac 2003	Ivo Skaramuca (’03 Dingac)	Dalmatian Coast Dubrovnik Region	13.5
2. 100%Plavac Mali Dingac 2004	Ivo Skaramuca (’04 Dingac)	Dalmatian Coast Dubrovnik Region	14
3. 34% Babich 33% Lasin 33% Plavina	Alen Bibic (’05 riserva)	North Dalmatia Skradin, Croatia	12.8
4. 88% Zinfandel 12% Petite Sirah	Mike Grgich (’04 Zinfandel)	Napa Valley, CA	14.8
5. 100%Crni pinot	Darko Urbanek (’05 Crni pinot)	Plesivica Region Ozalj-Vivodina	11.6

Croatian rose' and Croatian whites

6.

7.

8.

6. 100% Syrah	Alen Bibic (’06 Think Pink)	North Dalmatia	12.5
7. 100% Zlahtina	Toljanic (’06)	Primorje Region Island of Krk	11.2
8. 100% Debit	Alen Bibic (’05 debit)	North Dalmatia Skradin, Croatia	12.2

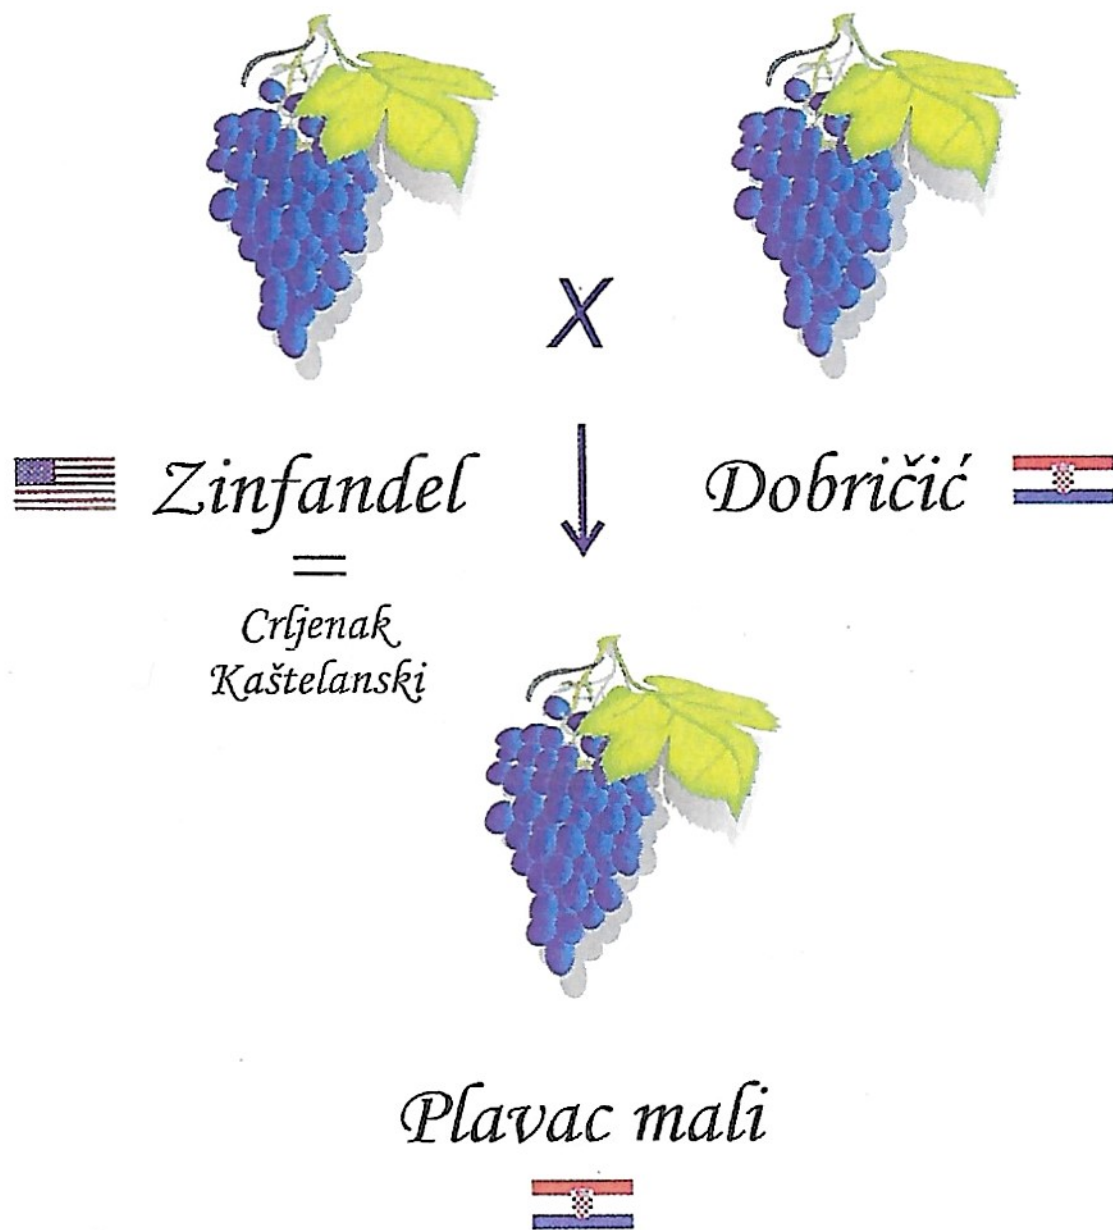

Viticultural Regions of Croatia:

Potentially close relatives

Close relatives

A diagram showing the parentage of Plavac mali and the relatedness of Zinfandel to autochthonous Croatian varieties. The diagram was constructed based on DNA microsatellite data, whereby blue color indicates a high degree of relatedness and magenta points out the more distant relatives (design by Ante Jukić).